

Journal of Global Media Studies

Guidelines for Submission in English

1. Who Can Contribute: Members of the Faculty of Global Media Studies, Komazawa University, both tenured and adjunct, including any combination of authors so long as the lead author is either tenured or adjunct at the Faculty of Global Media Studies, Komazawa University and others invited to contribute to the Journal of Media Studies (hereafter Journal), regardless of academic affiliation.
2. Language: Japanese or English
3. Copyright: Copyright for articles published in the Journal shall belong to the Faculty of Global Media Studies.
4. Permission to Reprint: Authors wishing to reprint articles from the Journal must receive written permission prior to doing so from the Faculty of Global Media Studies.
5. Length: Articles in English should be 6,000 words or less and should not exceed 15 pages in length including all endnotes, tables and illustrations.
6. Citations: References cited in the text shall be noted in accordance with the American Psychological Association guidelines.
7. Submission Guidelines: Articles submitted in English must include: the title of the article, in English; names of all authors; an extract, in English, of approximately 200–300 words; the article itself; endnotes; a bibliography; and a list of up to five Key Words. Five copies of both the manuscript and the extract must be submitted.
8. Final Submission: Manuscripts accepted for publication must be resubmitted together with the English extract in accordance with the above guidelines on a floppy disc or a CD.
9. Remuneration: No remuneration will be made. However, thirty offprints will be provided to the author free of cost.
10. Return of Materials: No manuscripts or accompanying materials will be returned.
11. Submissions: Manuscripts should be submitted to a member of the Journal's editorial board.